School Books of All Publishers At One Store

Our stock of general school books actually on hand is the largest and best assorted in the United States. We sell new books in stock at 25% discount off publishers' list prices, shelf-worn at from 30% to 40% discount, second-hand at from 55% to 65% discount, no charge for case or cartage. If we happen to be out of certain books wanted, we will buy them from the publishers if instructed, billing them to you at from 12½ to 16⅔% off publishers' list prices, depending upon the discount we receive from the publishers. Send us a trial order.

If you have any school or college books on your shelves new, shelf-worn, or second-hand that have become unsalable with you due to changes in text-books, send us a list; perhaps we can find a market for them.

THE

PUBLISHED BY THE

include over three thousand titles, and form by far the most complete and valuable collection of School and College Text-Books ever issued.

¶ Its large editorial staff is constantly engaged in supervising the publication of new books which have been written by eminent authors. During the past five years this Company has issued nearly 400 new text-books, in addition to copy books, book-keeping forms, etc. To this list there will constantly be added other books which will be prepared especially to meet such requirements of teachers as may arise.

¶ Price Lists, Circulars, and Illustrated Descriptive Catalogues of Common School, High School, and College Text-Books will be gladly sent to any address on request. Correspondence is cordially invited, and will always receive prompt and careful attention.

THE CENTURY CO.'S
Educational Department
NEW BOOKS OF 1905

THE ELEMENTS of RHETORIC and COMPOSITION. By A. H. Thorndike, Professor of English Literature in Northwestern University. 12mo. 350 pages. $1.00.

An elementary hand-book for use in schools and colleges, and intended to accompany a course in theme-writing. The old order of text-book, consisting of prohibitory rules and examples of bad English, is now being surely and rapidly replaced by books adapted to modern methods of teaching. Professor Thorndike's book has been commended as being thoroughly practical, and it is believed that it will prove adaptable to the needs of a greater number of classes than any preceding book.

Professor CHARLES SEARS BALDWIN, Yale University: "Being both sound in doctrine and serviceable in method, the book is exceptionally practical. I shall recommend it to teachers."

Dr. RICHARD M. JONES, William Penn Charter School, Philadelphia, Pa.: "The mechanical get up of the book is exactly what it should be. The binding is flexible at the back, allowing the book to be handled with the utmost ease. The paper has the dead surface so grateful to the eyes and so rare in other books, and the type is clear and open."

HISTORICAL STORIES: Retold from St. Nicholas. A series of volumes designed for supplementary reading. Cloth bound, about 200 pages each.

Encouraged by the popularity and usefulness of the "Animal Stories" series, retold from St. Nicholas, The Century Co. has planned another series from the same source—this time on historical subjects. The general division into books is chronological, according to the usual order.

In these volumes many of the best names in our literature are represented, and the stories were not perfunctorily written to order but were the product of inspired pens. The illustrations are the best work of our great artists. The large beautiful type and dead surface of the paper contribute their share to make books children will treasure.

NOW READY

INDIAN STORIES. Most of the stories in this book a boy of eight or nine can read for himself. The stories will delight, thrill, and interest any young reader, and coming at the age when he is being taught something of our colonial history will serve a very useful purpose.

IN PREPARATION

COLONIAL STORIES
REVOLUTIONARY STORIES
CIVIL WAR STORIES
OUR NATIONAL HOLIDAYS

THE AMERICAN STATE.—New Volumes

THE AMERICAN STATE. A series of eight volumes for Colleges, Schools, and General Readers. Describing comprehensively the manner in which the governmental agencies of the American State, federal, commonwealth, and local, are organized and administered at the present time. Edited by W. W. Willoughby, Professor of Political Science at the Johns Hopkins University.

It is intended that primarily these volumes shall be descriptive of actual conditions. Each volume, though complete in itself, will have its proper place in the series, and will have been prepared by an acknowledged expert with special reference to that fact. No similar series has been published hitherto.

12mo, 320 pages each, $1.25 net per volume

NOTES IN SEASON.

THE DODGE PUBLISHING COMPANY will issue shortly a novel on the divorce question by Orr Kenyon, to be entitled "What God Hath (Not) Joined."

THE CENTURY COMPANY will issue shortly "The Long Day," the story of a girl's fight against starvation by a writer who came to New York City without friends or experience and has made a great success; and "Jules of the Great Heart," by Lawrence Mott, who is regarded as a young writer of unusual promise.

DOUBLEDAY, PAGE & Co. have just ready Eugene P. Lyle's novel, "The Missourian," which deals with the Maximilian régime in Mexico. The author spent two years making studies on the spot. His father is a successful mining engineer in Mexico. The publishers are naturally pleased that A. Radcliffe Dugmore's "Nature and the Camera" is to appear in Germany; and "Fairy Tales Every Child Should Know" and "Poems Every Child Should Know" will be brought out in England. A third edition of "The Lion's Skin," by Captain John S. Wise, is also in preparation.

L. C. PAGE & COMPANY have just added to their Goldenrod Library "Findelkind," by "Ouida;" "A Small, Small Child," by E. Livingston Prescott; "The Fairy of the Rhone," by Comyns Carr; "Helena's Wonderworld," by Frances Hodges White; and Alphonse Daudet's "La Belle Nivernaise." Stephen Conrad's eagerly expected "Mrs. Jim and Mrs. Jimmie" is now ready and is in one way a sequel to last year's successful "The Second Mrs. Jim;" and during August will appear the authorized edition of Bliss Carman's "Complete Poems" in two volumes, which will be limited to 500 copies and will be specially printed by the Chiswick Press of London.

FREDERICK A. STOKES COMPANY have in preparation for immediate publication "The Fern Allies of North America: North of Mexico," by Dr. Willard Nelson Clute, formerly assistant curator of the New York Botanical Garden and author of many important studies in American botany. Dr. Clute's "Our Ferns in Their Haunts," published several years ago, remains the standard work on the ferns of North America. In the preparation of this sequel, dealing with the allied forms of plant life not included in the fern families, the same careful attention to detail has been given that characterized the earlier work. The volume will have eight full-page colored plates and more than 200 line and half-tone illustrations drawn from living plants by Ida Martin Clute.

MCCLURE, PHILLIPS & Co. will publish on August 15 an American edition of "The Complete Golfer," by Harry Vardon, three times champion of England and once of the United States; "Plunkitt of Tammany Hall," by W. L. Riordan, who voices very sincere and forceful opinions on government of states and cities under the guise of humorous philosophy; and "John D. Rockefeller: a Character Sketch," made up of the two articles contributed by Ida M. Tarbell to McClure's Magazine. On September 15 will be issued "My Friend the Chauffeur," a new motor car romance by C. N. and A. M. Williamson, of "Lightning Conductor" fame. Four much entangled love stories run through the story which has not been issued as a serial, but makes its first appearance complete in book form.

THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY

American Educational List, 1905

This List plans to include all textbooks used in American schools and academic institutions (not in universities, professional or technical schools;) also classical and foreign texts annotated for schools, and such English texts as are required for college entrance examinations, 1905-7. Entries are under authors or editors; classical texts are entered under editor's name, foreign and English texts under author's name, with editor's name in parenthesis. For subject classification, and for collective reference to classical authors entered under editors, see the second part of this List, following the main alphabet. The List does not include other English texts, (except comprehensive school editions of Shakespeare;) nor Supplementary Reading, (except references to some comprehensive series and a few special books.) The list does not include works of reference for schools, (except dictionaries;) nor Teachers' Aids, (except teachers' manuals forming part of a textbook series.) It is also intended to exclude imported textbooks, except such as are printed with American imprint or sold here in class quantities.

The List omits works out of print or superseded by newer editions, or works obsolete in the sense of being no longer sold in quantities for class introduction, but only in individual copies to schools having the book already in use. For such works see the American Educational List of previous years.

The price given is the "net" or introduction price made by the publisher (with close trade discount only,) for which a copy is sent to a teacher postpaid. Where an additional mailing charge is made for postage on single copies, an asterisk () precedes the price. Books priced at retail, with regular trade discount, are designated by a dagger (†) in the price column. When there is a blank in price column the publisher failed to give information. A double asterisk () designates books forthcoming and yet unpriced. New books issued since the List of 1904 are designated by a single asterisk () before title.

☞ Be particular in ordering to specify edition, and to give the full name of the book as entered in this List.

The Publishers' Weekly.

FOUNDED BY F. LEYPOLDT.

JULY 29, 1905.

The editor does not hold himself responsible for the views expressed in contributed articles or communications.

All matter for advertising pages should reach this office not later than Wednesday noon, to insure insertion in the same week's issue.

Publishers are requested to furnish title page proofs and advance information of books forthcoming, both for entry in the lists and for descriptive mention. An early copy of each book published should be forwarded, as it is of the utmost importance that the entries of books be made as promptly and as perfectly as possible. In many cases booksellers depend on the PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY solely for their information. The Record of New Publications of the PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY is the material of the "American Catalogue" and so forms the basis of trade bibliography in the United States.

"I hold every man a debtor to his profession, from the which, as men do of course seek to receive countenance and profit, so ought they of duty to endeavor themselves by way of amends to be a help and an ornament thereunto."—LORD BACON.

THE EDUCATIONAL LIST AND THE TRADE IN SCHOOL-BOOKS.

As indicated last year, the Educational List for 1905 has been revised to bring it into present conformity with the practice of educational publishers as regards prices, and will be found, we trust, greatly improved in other respects. The practice of publishers in pricing textbooks is by no means uniform or consistent, and presents many difficulties both to the cataloguer and to the dealer. We have adopted as the basic price that at which a single copy is mailed to a teacher on his application, postage paid, a price properly called net but more often called the introduction price, and sometimes, incorrectly, a wholesale price. This is the price at which single copies and the ordinary school supply are furnished, the only discount being a close discount to the trade or to Boards of Education purchasing in large quantities for a school system. Some publishers very rightly add to this net or introduction price the mailing charge, and this fact is designated by an asterisk in the price column, which means that the price stated is not inclusive of postage. Some books used in schools are still issued on the old system, permitting a larger discount to the trade, and this "retail" price is designated by a dagger in the price column. Special pains have also been taken this year to eliminate books which are obsolete or sold only in single copies to keep up the supply in schools which adopted the work years ago.

One of the most striking changes which has come over the educational trade is the substitution of "texts" of works of literature for the old-fashioned "reader," both in foreign languages and in English. American colleges have more and more relied upon a uniform schedule of textbooks required for college entrance examinations, and we give a list of these elsewhere. It is practically impossible to make an educational list covering all English texts offered for school use without undertaking to compile almost a catalogue of English literature; but we have included in the present list the competing editions of foreign texts annotated for school use and of the English texts designated in the college schedules for the entrance examinations up to 1907.

The extent of the Educational List is itself proof of the difficulty of keeping in stock in a retail store a supply of school books representative of American educational literature. Yet this is no reason why a retail bookseller should abandon the educational trade. The bookseller ought to inform himself thoroughly of the books used in the schools of his town, and it is best to provide such facilities as will hold such trade as still exists outside of direct relationship between schools and publishers. There is in fact so little profit in most textbooks that this seems scarcely worth while to the local dealer, yet the relation of the bookstore with this part of the community is so important that it is worth while to do all that can be done to strengthen relations with the clientele of teachers and scholars.

LIBRARY STATISTICS.

The Federal Commissioner of Education has published some interesting library statistics showing that in 1903 the number of books in public, society and school libraries was 54,419,000. The number represented an increase of 374 per cent. in twenty-eight years, an increase largely due to Mr. Andrew Carnegie, to whom upwards of a thousand libraries in the United States owe their existence, wholly or in part. The number of volumes in 1900 was 44,591,000. The largest collection of books in the United States is the Congressional Library, which contains 1,000,000 volumes, including pamphlets, next to which comes Harvard University, which contains 560,000 bound volumes, and 350,000 pamphlets. The Boston Public Library figures in the third place, the aggregate number of its books and pamphlets being 772,000. The New York Public Library, which will comprehend the Astor, Lenox, and Tilden foundations, has 500,000 volumes and 140,000 pamphlets. To appreciate, however, the facilities for reading afforded in New York, we should mention that the New York City Library has 500,000 volumes, together with a large number of pamphlets; that the library of Columbia University has nearly 300,000 volumes and 15,000 pamphlets, and the Mercantile Library, 262,000 volumes, including pamphlets. The Philadelphia Library Company owns 201,000 volumes and 31,000 pamphlets, and the number of books and pamphlets in the Philadelphia Free Library is 207,000. The Chicago Public Library has 258,000 books and pamphlets, and in the library of the Chicago University there are 329,000 books and 150,000 pamphlets. All of the last-mentioned statistics refer to 1900. In the same year, according to Harper's Weekly, by which these figures are condensed, the Bibliothèque Nationale at Paris had 3,000,000 books and pamphlets, the British Museum 2,000,000, the Imperial Library at St. Petersburg 1,500,000, and the Royal Library at Berlin, 1,000,000. It appears that the number of American publications in 1902 was 7833; of British publications in the same year, 7381; of Italian publications in 1900, 9975; of French publications in 1902, 12,199; of German publications in the same year, 26,906.

It will surprise most persons to learn that 17,985 books were published in Russia in 1895, and 21,255 in Japan in 1899. From another point of view, it may be noted that in the United States books accessible to the public are far from being evenly distributed, although Mr. Carnegie has tried to lessen the inequality by directing especial attention to the western section of the community. As things are now, however, in the Indian Territory in 1903 there were only two books for one hundred people, and only twelve in Alabama and Mississippi. On the other hand, in the District of Columbia no fewer than 925 books are available for every one hundred persons. Massachusetts has 256 volumes for every one hundred of the population. If the United States be looked at collectively, we find that there are sixty-eight books to one hundred inhabitants.

The Library Journal for June, commenting editorially on this report, says: "Unfortunately, many libraries failed to answer the request for information, and in these cases old statistics were left. This represents the "dead wood" in the library forest, and it is to be hoped that in the next report there may be a careful elimination of libraries which have no longer more than a nominal existence. Probably the number of real libraries is less, and the total number of books more, than is shown in the report. The percentages of increase are certainly remarkable, and we are nearing the point when we shall have the average of a book for each inhabitant in the public libraries of the United States. It is interesting to note that New York and Massachusetts together have approximately one-fourth of the total number of libraries and total number of books, and the North Atlantic States approximately one-half of the whole number. California is showing remarkable development, and the backward part of the country is still the South, which, however, is now feeling a new growth of library interest."

BOOKTRADE SWINDLERS.

JOHN POWERS, alias Ambrose Laprell, alias A. Howard, alias Logan, was arraigned before Commissioner Shields on the 25th inst., charged by Post Office Inspector James T. Cortelyou, of Newark, N. J., with using the mails in a book swindling scheme by which publishing houses have been swindled out of thousands of dollars' worth of books.

According to the complaint, it is alleged that one of the accused wrote a letter to a publishing firm, professing to be a book agent with a prospective customer and asking for a quantity of samples. This letter was supported by others, said to have been written by members of the crowd as if from reputable persons, with elaborate letterheads and apparently good addresses. These letters not only backed up the book agent's request for samples, but ordered a large lot of books for their writers also. The books, when secured, were immediately sold and the gang removed to another town from which, according to the inspectors, they would work the scheme anew.

One of the letters quoted in the complaint asks John D. Morris & Co., a Philadelphia publishing firm, to "kindly pack for immediate shipment" about $600 worth of French and English fiction. Another requests samples "for a gentleman's library" worth between $750 and $1000.

Powers was released on $1500 bail pending a hearing before the Grand Jury. He is the second of the crowd to be arrested. They are alleged to have operated in Newark, but were both arrested in New York City.

THE PENNYPACKER LIBRARY TO BE SOLD.

THE rare historical library of Governor Pennypacker, of Pennsylvania, will be sold at auction early in the fall. Among the books which will fall under the hammer are 160 volumes printed by Benjamin Franklin. These, together with about 200 old "Germantown imprints," are conservatively valued at $10,000.

Among other prizes is a diary of George Washington in manuscript. It was written at Mount Vernon, and contains remarks about the weather, the planting of crops and such things. There are papers of all the Presidents down to Grant, and the marriage license of Abraham Lincoln. The Governor also possesses a book from Washington's library describing the projected city of Washington. In it is a prayer that was used by the Continental Army in 1775.

Much surprise is expressed that the Governor should part with so rare a collection, considered by many to be the finest private one in the country. Every volume was collected by the Governor himself, and he has devoted a great part of his life to the work.

The books are all at the Pennypacker residence, 1540 North Fifteenth Street, Philadelphia. When he decided to make his home at Schwenksville, Pa., the Governor concluded to dispose of the greater portion of his books.

BEST-SELLING BOOKS IN JUNE.

THE following books, according to The Bookman, sold best in order of demand during the month of June:

	POINTS.
1. Sandy. Rice. Century Co	160
2. The Garden of Allah. Hichens. Stokes	136
3. The Marriage of William Ashe. Ward. Harper	98
4. The Breath of the Gods. McCall. Little, Brown & Co	76
5. The Princess Passes. Williamson. Holt	75
6. Constance Trescot. Mitchell. Century Co	72

PERSONAL NOTES.

S. EDGAR BRIGGS, of the Fleming H. Revell Company, left last week to join Norman Duncan, author of "Doctor Luke of the Labrador," at Exploits, a village on the East coast of the land he has described so beautifully. Mr. Briggs and Mr. Duncan will make various side trips and be welcome guests in every fishing village where Mr. Duncan finds "his people."

B. W. HUEBSCH, 150 Nassau Street, New York City, whose diary, known as Huebsch's Year Book, is familiar to the book and stationery trade, is travelling in the middle West, taking orders for 1906 books. Travellers are showing the line in other sections of the country. A variety of vest-pocket sizes and some new desk styles bring the line up to twenty-nine numbers, for each one of which there will be an active demand.

JOURNALISTIC NOTES.

THE New York Times is to publish "The Breadwinners" as a serial in its Sunday issues. Though Secretary Hay never acknowledged himself the author of this book, he also never denied his responsibility for this political novel which made so powerful impression upon novel readers almost a quarter of a century ago.

McClure's Magazine printed a large extra edition of the July number in anticipation of the demand which, it was expected, Miss Tarbell's Rockefeller would create; but the public interest so far exceeded the circulation manager's calculations that in six days the entire edition was exhausted. With the August number occupying the presses, it was not possible to print more of July, and orders for 50,000 remained unfilled.

OBITUARY NOTES.

J. HERVEY COOK, barrister and historian, died at Ledgewood, N. J., on Saturday, July 22, at the age of seventy-two. He was prominent in educational matters. He resided in Fishkill Landing for many years and was an authority on Revolutionary facts. He was a classmate of William McKinley and Alton B. Parker.

NOTES ON AUTHORS.

THE British Order of Merit has been accorded to George Meredith, R. C. Jebb, Holman Hunt and Alma-Tadema.

JOHN HAY is one of the prominent characters in "The Illini," Colonel Clark E. Carr's book on early Illinois, published by A. C. McClurg & Co.

MISS MABEL BOUSELL, Noblesville, Ind., is preparing an arithmetic for special use in the Philippine schools. She is doing the work for a New York firm, being especially fitted for it from her experiences as teacher in the Island schools.

HOBART CHATFIELD CHATFIELD-TAYLOR has had conferred upon him the order of St. James by the King of Portugal in recognition of an article upon the city of Lisbon contributed by this Chicago writer. This is the fourth foreign order with which Mr. Chatfield-Taylor has been honored. King Alfonso of Spain and the Presidents of France and Venezuela have already decorated him.

THE announcement of Miss Ethel Barrymore's engagement to Captain Harry Graham of the British Army, in the daily papers, generally omitted to add that the famous actress's fiancée is the poet who achieved literary fame under the pseudonym of "Col. D. Streamer," the pen name being derived from Captain Graham's regiment, the Coldstream Guards. His "Misrepresentative Men," published by Fox, Duffield & Co., is now in its fourth edition and they will shortly publish another volume, "More Misrepresentative Men," by the same author.

BUSINESS NOTES.

BOSTON, MASS.—The Clark Publishing Company has incorporated in Massachusetts; capital $20,000; par value, $5. The incorporators are Esther E. Jones, president; Dudley L. Clark, treasurer, Boston.

NEW YORK CITY.—Cedric Chivers has removed his office from 542 Fifth Avenue to 1242 Fulton Street, Brooklyn, where he has his workshops. He will confine his work wholly to the binding of books for public library use.

OTTUMWA, IA.—The Longfellow Book and Stationery Co. has succeeded to the business of the Longfellow Bookstore.

BIBLIOGRAPHIC NOTES.

J. WHITAKER & SONS, London, have in preparation a new edition of their "Reference Catalogue of Current Literature," with an index, which will be published next year.

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS have in preparation a revised edition of William Swan Sonnenschein's "The Best Books," a guide to the choice of the best available books in every department of science, art, and literature, with the dates of the first and last editions, and the price, size, and publisher's name of each volume, with complete authors and subjects index. The work is a revised and rewritten edition of Mr. Sonnenschein's volumes, "The Best Books" and "A Reader's Guide."

WILLIAMS & NORGATE, 14 Henrietta Street, Covent Garden, London, have just brought out the first number of The Bibliographical Register, a prominent feature of which will be the publication of hitherto unprinted documents relating to bibliography and historical printing. In this first number is given the first portion of an important letter from Henry Bradshaw on printing in the Irish character. There are, besides, notes on recent bibliographic works, notes and queries, and collations and descriptions of early English books. The periodical for the present will be published quarterly at 2s. 2d. a year.

DODD, MEAD & CO. have just brought out the second volume of Luther S. Livingston's monumental work, "Auction Prices of Books," reviewed in our issue for May 13, 1905. Nothing can be added to our estimate of the work excepting that as it progresses one is impressed with its magnitude and importance as a labor-saver to all who handle books whether as a bookseller, librarian or collector. To these the work is absolutely indispensable. The remaining two volumes are well under way and will be published shortly.

CATALOGUES OF NEW AND SECOND-HAND BOOKS.—Antiquarian Book Concern, Americus, Ga., Old books and pamphlets relating to the Civil War, Revolutionary War, Indians, etc. (No. 1, 20 p. 8°.)—Joseph Baer & Co., 6 Hochstr, Frankfurt-a.-Main, Deutsche geschichte von 1600 bis zur gegenwart. LITERARY AND TRADE NOTES.

ROBERT LUTZ, of Stuttgart, who recently published a German edition of an American book by Burton Stevenson, entitled "Holladay Case," has just bought the German rights of that author's new book, "Marathon Mystery." Both books are published here by Henry Holt & Co.

JAMES POTT & COMPANY will publish in the autumn "To-day on the Nile," by H. W. Dunning, who has recently returned from his sixth trip up the Nile. His book is not merely a narrative of personal experience, but aims to combine with it a sufficient account of Egyptian history to lead to an understanding of modern conditions in the country.

THE TRUTH SEEKER COMPANY, 62 Vesey Street, New York City, has just issued a translation by Frederic Mitchell of Edgar Monteil's "Freethinker's Catechism," and new editions of "Old Testament Stories Comically Illustrated" and "New Testament Stories Comically Illustrated," the pictures for both books being the work of Watson Heston, who recently died at Carthage, Mo.

PAUL ELDER & COMPANY, San Francisco, have in preparation "Womanhood in Art," by Phebe Estelle Spalding, a volume of essays dealing with women made famous in art, such as the Venus of Milo, Mona Lisa, the several celebrated Madonnas, etc., which will be sumptuously illustrated; and they have just issued "Impressions of Ukiyo-Ye," by Dora Amsdon; and are preparing a third edition of "Prosit: a Book of Toasts."

J. B. LIPPINCOTT COMPANY are promised the manuscript of "The True Andrew Jackson," which Cyrus Townsend Brady is completing, by August 1, and it will no doubt be a notable addition to the True Biographies. They will also have ready shortly "Memoirs of General Early," edited by Senator John W. Daniel; and a new novel by Thomas McKean, entitled "The Vortex," in which the popular millionaire author goes to Italy for his scene and characters.

E. P. DUTTON & COMPANY have in preparation "The Romance of Savoy: Victor Amadeus II. and His Stuart Bride," by the Marchesa Vitelleschi, which is said to throw much light on the struggles for liberty carried on by the Duke of Savoy against Louis XIV.; and "Peter's Mother," a new novel by Mrs. Henry de la Pasture, dealing with conflict of emotions in a still young widow's heart who hesitates between her love for her son and her love for another.

FLEMING H. REVELL COMPANY will bring out in the fall "Sir Raoul," a story of the thirteenth century, by Dr. James M. Ludlow, author of "The Captain of the Janizaries." The story deals with the capture of Constantinople. They have in press a small volume by G. Campbell Morgan, entitled "The Christ of To-day: What, Whence Whither?" presenting the modern evangelical view of the person and mission of Christ and of the true aims of the Christian church. That remarkable little devotional book, "Quiet Talks on Power," by S. D. Gordon, which has had such great success in England and America, is now being translated into Dutch.

BAKER & TAYLOR CO. announce for fall publication some unusually promising books. "When You Were a Boy," by Edwin L. Sabin, is composed of very happy sketches of boy life, of which the greater part have appeared in the Century; "Poet, Miss Kate and I," by Margaret P. Montague, is a story dealing with Western Virginia which is to be printed in two colors and have a cover showing the beautiful scene of the story; and a fourth edition of Miss Rowland's "Digressions of Polly" completes the preparations in fiction. Russell Sturgis will have ready the fourth volume in the Popular Art Series, but it is not yet named; and an authoritative and highly interesting work will be "Japanese Architecture and the Allied Arts," by Ralph Adams Cram, one of America's best known architects, who has spent much time in Japan making studies for his book.

D. APPLETON & CO. have firm faith in fiction, and have made preparations for a long list of novels for the fall. A partial list of some that are to appear immediately as as follows: "The Reckoning," by Robert W. Chambers; "The Yellow Journalist," by Miriam Michelson; "Baby Bullet," by Lloyd Osbourne; "The Flute of Pan," by John Oliver Hobbes; "The Carlyles," by Mrs. Burton Harrison; "The Hundred Days," by Max Pemberton; "He and Hecuba," by the Baroness von Hutten; "Time, the Comedian," by Kate Jordan; "Outside the Law," by James Barnes; "Reptiles," by H. W. McVickar; "Duke of Devil-May-Care," by Harris Dickson; "The Game and the Candle," by Frances Davidge; "Purple and Fine Linen," by Emily Post; "The Staircase of Surprise," by Frances A. Mathews; "Vivien," by W. B. Maxwell; "The Lake," by George Moore; "Twisted Eglantine," by H. B. Marriott Watson; "Patricia: a Mother," by "Iota;" "At the Emperor's Wish," by Oscar King Davis; and "The Giants," by Mrs. Fremont Older.

THOMPSON & THOMAS, Chicago, announce for the fall season "Tales of the Road," by Charles N. Crewdson, which contains stories of business life by a man who has been on the road for seventeen years and is counted among the brightest travellers; "An American in New York," a novel of to-day by Opie Read; "Merciful Unto Me, a Sinner," a Christian science novel by Elinor Dawson, in favor of the new doctrines; and "Peck's Bad Boy Abroad," by Hon. George W. Peck, who takes his promising son on a tour around the world. Among books outside of fiction there will be "How to Hustle," by J. P. Johnston, a man who hustled himself into marked success; the "Twentieth Century Home Cook Book," by Mrs. Frances Carruthers; "Daring Exploits of Scouts and Spies," by General Lafayette C. Baker; "Painting Pastimes," a combination painting and drawing book, by Edith O'Donnell; "Our Feathered Friends" and "Our Animal Friends in Their Native Homes," a natural history for young people, by Mrs. Phœbe Westcott Humphreys; "Toyland," a juvenile printed in many colors; and "A B C Fun," written in merry jingle and also illustrated in colors.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

Under the heading "Books Wanted" book-trade subscribers are given the privilege of a free advertisement for books out of print, of five nonpareil lines exclusive of address, in any issue except special numbers, to an extent not exceeding 100 lines a year. If more than five lines are sent, the excess is at 10 cents a line, and amount should be inclosed. Bids for current books and such as may be easily had from the publishers, and repeated matter, as well as all advertisements from non-subscribers, must be paid for at the rate of 10 cents a line.

Under the heading "Books for Sale," the charge to subscribers and non-subscribers is 10 cents a nonpareil line for each insertion. No deduction for repeated matter

All other small, undisplayed, advertisements will be charged at the uniform rate of 10 cents a nonpareil line. Eight words may be reckoned to the line.

Parties with whom we have no accounts must pay in advance, otherwise no notice will be taken of their communications.

BOOKS WANTED.

☞ In answering, please state edition, condition, and price, including postage or express charges.

Houses that are willing to deal exclusively on a cash-on-delivery basis will find it to their advantage to put after their firm-name the word [Cash].

☞ Write your wants plainly and on one side of the sheet only. Illegibly-written "wants" will be considered as not having been received. The "Publishers' Weekly" does not hold itself responsible for errors.

It should be understood that the appearance of advertisements in this column, or elsewhere in the "Publishers' Weekly" does not furnish a guarantee of credit. While it is endeavored to safeguard these columns by withdrawing the privilege of their use from advertisers who are not "good pay," booksellers should take the usual precaution, as to advertisers not known to them, that they would take in making sales to any unknown parties.

A New Pocket Edition

OF THE WORKS OF

William Shakespeare

For convenience, serviceability, and beauty of appearance this latest handy volume set of Shakespeare is unrivalled. The Cambridge text of William Aldis Wright has been reproduced with scrupulous exactness, and the introductions and notes are by Israel Gollancz, the scholarly editor of the Temple Shakespeare. This is the cheapest large-type edition of the world's great dramatist on the market, and the quality of paper and binding, as well as typography, contribute to make the edition thoroughly unique. A list of artists whose works appear in the flexible leather style includes L Alma Tadema, R.A., R.W.S., P. H. Calderon, R.A., F. Goodall, R.A., V. C. Prinsep, A.R.A., P. R. Morris, A.R.A., F. W. W. Topham, R.I., E. Blair Leighton, G. D. Leslie, R.A., E. Long, R.A., R. W. Macbeth, A.R.A., F. Dicksee, A.R.A., C. E. Perugini, E. J. Poynter, R.A., R.W.S., Sir F. Leighton, P.R.A., H. Woods, A.R.A., J. W. Waterhouse, A.R.A., R.I., W. F. Yeames, R.A., Marcus Stone, R.A., Luke Fildes, R.A., and many others. The volumes are forty in number, thirty-seven being devoted to the plays and three to the poems and sonnets. The format is very dainty, but the small size is well adapted to all practical uses in library, home, and school.

FRENCH, GERMAN, AND OTHER FOREIGN LANGUAGES

The French and German methods are modern, and are used in many of the most progressive schools and colleges throughout the country. The general stock of imported books is very large, for we supply not only our own publications but those of all publishers at home and abroad. Our Roman Choisis, Contes Choisis, and other series, tastefully printed and low priced, contain masterpieces of French, Spanish and Italian authors. They are used extensively for class reading, many having notes in English. A complete catalogue of all publications, also of imported books, will be sent when requested.

SIMPLE GRAMMAIRE FRANCAISE

Par PAUL BERCY, B.L., L.D., et GEORGES CASTEGNIER, B. ès-L., B. ès-S. Accompagnée d'un Questionnaire et Basée sur la Réforme de la Syntaxe. 12mo, cloth, 220 pages, $1.00.

The SIMPLE GRAMMAIRE FRANCAISE presents several advantages First, it is in French; the difficult words and sentences are translated into English and placed in parentheses. Second, the rules and exceptions are based upon the "Reform of the Syntax" in accordance with the decree of the Minister of Public Instruction Third, the English exercises to be translated into French are invaluable Fourth, the "Questionnaire" will be of great assistance both to teachers and pupils; it can be used for conversation, as the questions and the answers are written in simple form; aim has been made to avoid pedagogy. Fifth, the chapter on the distinction between masculine and feminine nouns will be much appreciated.
